2020 Christ Church Plant Sale
May 23, 2020

All plants are in 3.5" pots for $3.00 unless otherwise stated.

Vegetables:

Asparagus (perennial):
 - Millenium, $10 for six-plant flat
Cabbage (all green):
 - Farao: early, not for winter storage
 - Passat: winter storage
 - Reaction: winter storage
Celery:
 - Tango: Short season, does well here
Cucumber:
 - Little Leaf: pickling, fresh eating
 - Marketmore standard slicer
Peppers:
 - New Ace: Standard green bell pepper
 - King Crimson: Red bell pepper
 - Early Jalapeno: Hot
 - Long Red Narrow Cayenne: Hot, often
   dried

Tomatoes:
 - Brandywine: traditional heirloom
   beefsteak
 - Cherokee Carbon: beefsteak, cross of two heirlooms
 - Cosmonaut Volkov: superior tasting
   Ukranian heirloom, grows well here
 - Damsel: disease-resistant heirloom-like
   beefsteak
 - Glacier: "saladette", very early
 - Juliet: disease-resistant cherry
 - Matt's Wild Cherry: prolific tiny delicious
   tomatoes
 - Mountain Magic: "saladette", blight-
   resistant
 - San Marzano: classic Italian paste
 - Sun Gold: yellow cherry
 - Jet Star: reliable medium-size
 - Tasti Lee: prolific, mid-size, superior flavor

Winter squash & pumpkins (all for eating)
 - Burpee Butterbush: bush butternut squash
 - Little Dipper: small butternut squash
 - Long Pie: looks like an overgrown zucchini, but makes the best pumpkin pies
 - Sweet REBA: acorn squash
 - Winter Luxury pumpkin: great for pies

Herbs:

Basil: standard Italian
Catnip: For your cat!
Chamomile: flowers used for tea; annual but self-seeds
Lemon balm: pollinator-friendly perennial,
   adds lemon flavor
Oregano:: standard Greek, perennial
Parsley, Krausa: Deeply curled Stinging Nettle: Said to help allergies, also good as cooked green, perennial

Flowers:

Alyssum (annual)
 - Carpet of Snow, already flowering!
Columbine (perennial):
 - Double Take
Cosmos (annual, pollinator-friendly):
 - Sensation mix
Echinacea (perennial):
 - Echinacea pupurea, common purple
   coneflower
Nasturtium (annual):
 - Jewel mix: add flowers to salads!
Shasta Daisy (perennial)

And more not listed!